

ASL Lower School

client: The American School in London budget: £178,000
location: The American School in London
NW8
status: completed summer 2005

- boundary of coloured play houses, designed and constructed as part of the security works incorporating TPO'd trees
- dynamic play space encapsulating a wide range of activities
- consultation with teachers, parents and pupils

