

Paddington Recreation Ground

client: Westminster City Council budget: £230,000 status: completed autumn 2006

- a new play space for all ages
- consultation with resident groups throughout the design process
- the visual strength of the landscape provides a character framework within which play equipment is sited
- very popular and well received

